

BUP Teachers' Course 2023–2024

Education for Sustainable Development in Higher Education

The focus of the course is to improve the implementation of Agenda 2030 in the learning methods in Higher Education. The participants will get tools how to integrate the UN Sustainable Development Goals into their own teaching and study programs in a hands-on way.

The emphasis is primarily to strengthen goal #4 – Quality education, but also the other SDG's can come into question.

Target group:

Educators, teachers, and researchers in Higher Education. The course is free of charge for participants from the BUP Participating universities. Applicants from outside the BUP are also welcome.

Application deadline: 18.8.2023.

Duration: September 2023–March 2024.

Program:

- Online material, exercises and discussions in groups.
- Two workshops: 27–29.9 2023 at Riga Technical University, Latvia and in February/March 2024 (time and place to be decided during the first workshop).
- Preparation and presentation of an individual project.

More information and application:
<http://bup.fi/bup-teachers-course>

balticuniv.uu.se
bup.fi